MINOR CABINET RESHUFFLE

PARIS, Mar. 17 (Reuter)-Talk of a minor Cabinet reshuffle continues in political circles following yesterday's Senate vote. LESSON LEARNED

The vote, in which about 25 per cent of the Senators abstained is interpreted as a vote of thorough confidence in the Government coupled with the demand for increasing energy in the conduct of the war. The Senators who abstained included M. Laval.

L'Temps, commenting on the debate, says that the lesson of Finland has been learned and the "war will be carried on with increasing energy.

"New Government methods will be adopted and the responsibilities which the Government carries will be better apportioned."

Lt.-Col. H. B. L. Dowbiggin's Ebony Idol, who was third, was the winner of the cup on the two previous occasions and would have retained the cup permanently had it won this year too. Although the race was of special interest from this point of view, it is significant that Clowner was by far the better fancied candi-

Mr. Manetta's 'Falkative returned the second best dividend for the day when it won the Shamrock Stakes to pay $48.

The special $1 sweep on race five, the Kwanti Cup, was divided into two sections, "A" and "B"... "The "A" section was in respect of tickets sold before the meeting started and the "B" section on tickets sold on the course. The results of the sweeps will be found? on this page with the results of the cash sweeps on the other

HOW THE HORSES RAN In the first race Clowner, the favourite, took the lead and drew away to win comfortably by many lengths. Three Farthings and Ebony Idol followed in that order 2.20 A. J. H.E.'S TELEGRAM

I have the honour on behalf of the Colony of Hongkong to offer to His Majesty's Government as contributions towards the prosecution of the war the following amounts

(a) $5,000,000 towards the construction and equipment of two mine-sweeping vessels. four harbour defence vessels and two ferry tenders.

(b) a gift of £100,000 in

These amounts were unanimously voted in the Legislature today.

Mr. Malcolon MacDonald, The Secretary of State for the Colonies, replied as follows:—

Please convey to the Legislative Council of Hongkong the sincere thanks of His Majesty's Government for their exceedingly generous decision to offer an immediate gift to His Majesty's Government of £100,000 towards the prosecution of the war and to provide for the construction of naval vessels from the proceeds of special war taxation. His Malesty's Government deeply appreciate these very practical contributions by the people of Hongkong towards the successful prosecution of the war.

OVER PEACE TERMS: UPPER-LIP ATTITUDE

HELSINGFORS, Mar. 16 (Havas)—There is still heartbreak and bitterness here over the peace treaty with Russia, and this is reflected in the Finnish press. The consensus is expressed by one paper, which says sacrifices they had made. " attitude, however, the paper Finnish peace as "the peace of the says:--"Our generation must be the bridge between the past and the future, and must see that the heritage of our ancestors is saved for our descendants."

TREATY SIGNATURE

The peace treaty with Russia ratified by the Finnish Parliament by 145 votes to 3, will now be submitted for Fresident Kallio's signature.

ALLIED INTENTIONS

BUDAPEST, Mar. 16 (Reuter)-The "Pest! Hylap" emphasises the significance of President Kallio's statement on the refusal of Sweden and Norway to allow the passage of Allied troops to Finland.

The paper adds: "After this, statement of the Finn'sh President there is no questioning that Brita'n and France serlously intended to help Finland.

SPANISH VIEW MADRID, Mar. 16 (Havas)-The

Spanish press devotes quite a lot of comment to the Soviet-Finnish peace treaty. The comment of one paper, the

"Journal Alcazar," includes a picture captioned:-"The Victors." It shows starving Russian prisoners wolfing down food given them by their Finnish raptors. "PEACE OF SWORD" that it is not understandable how this could be after the Adopting a stiff unper-lip Romano" refers to the Russo-

> The dictate of Moscow, it says, is a challenge of all peaceful peoples who love order, desire justice and base their life on respect for the rights of others.

PUPPET'S POST

STOCKHOLM, Mar. 16 (Havas) -Rumours of the execution of Otto Kuusinen, the renegade Finn heading the puppet Finnish regime established by the Soviet, are utterly groundless, says the Helsingfors correspondent of the "Social Demokraten."

The correspondent believes Kuusinen will be appointed president of all territories transferred from Finland to Russian rule under the peace treaty.

CURIOUS COMMENT

MOSCOW, Mar. 16 (Havas)-A curious comment appears in "Fravda." organ of the central committee of the Russian communist party:-

"The U.S.S.R., in its diplomatic negotiations, never imposes—even on the smallest of neighbouring countries—conditions incompatible with their national dignity or independence"

> FINNISH ARMY NOT TO BE DEMOBILISED

HELSINGFORS, Mar. 16 (Havas) -The Finnish Army will not be completely demobilised, it is learned, but part of it will be kept at ROME, Mar. 16 (Reuter)—The full war strength until the new "Osservatore defence lines are completed.

& Norway Accused Sweden Liberal Leader

LONDON. Mar. 17 (Reuter)-"The acquiescence of Sweden and Norway in the fate of Finland was a triumph of evil force over moral weakness," declared Sir Archibald Sinclair in a broadcast last night.
